Continuous Training on
Threat of Terrorism Around the World

Objective

In this module, you will be

- ▶ Updated on security –related and/or Terrorism information.
- ▶ Recap on handling Bomb-Threat and Suspicious Person, Vehicle & Activity.

Introduction

- Terrorist incidents can be very violent and may be targeted against specific people and organisations, but as it is becoming common these may be indiscriminate and everyone is at risk. The setting of explosive or other potential dangerous devices (bomb threats) is a potential hazard in all premises.
- The aim at all times must be to protect the safety of all people within the premises.

Introduction

- Terrorism is spreading around the world beyond anyone's control. With the increasing number of bombing incidents around the world, no country including Singapore can take safety for granted.

We are a target too

Terrorism is not something far away, it can happen in Singapore

Case Study

- ▶ SINGAPORE - A 46-year-old man has been arrested for his suspected involvement in a series of anonymous bomb threats.
 - ▶ In a statement released on Friday (April 13), the police revealed that they have been receiving several reports of envelopes containing anonymous bomb threats being received by several establishments, which include various government buildings, hotels and convenience stores.
 - ▶ Officers from the Bedok Police Division conducted enquiries and forensic examinations and arrested the man on Friday.

Case Study

- ▶ Investigations revealed that the man is suspected to have sent out at least five envelopes containing such bomb threats, with no intention or means to carry out the threats.
 - ▶ The police said he will be charged in court on Saturday (April 14) with criminal intimidation by anonymous communication under Section 507 of the Penal Code. If convicted, he faces a jail term of up 9 years or a fine, or both.
 - ▶ The police added that they treat all security threats seriously and will not hesitate to take action against anyone who causes public alarm.
